Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
  - I. Claims 1-3, drawn to microcapsule composition, classified in class 430, subclass 138.
  - II. Claims 4-6 and 8, drawn to process for forming a microcapsule composition, classified in class 430, subclass 137.12.
  - III. Claim 7, drawn to a process for forming electrophoretic display, classified in class 427, subclass 58+.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions II and I are related as process of making composition and composition made.

The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make another and materially different composition or (2) that the composition as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case the process as claimed can be used to make another and materially different composition whereby the microcapsule content is outside of the 30-80 by weight with the aid a drying step.

3. Inventions III and I are related as process and composition for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another and materially different composition, or (2) the composition as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case the composition can be used to practice another and materially different process other than coating and drying such as by laminating.

4. Inventions II and III are directed to related distinct processes. The related inventions are distinct if the inventions as claimed do not overlap in scope, i.e., are mutually exclusive; the inventions as claimed are not obvious variants; and the inventions as claimed are either not capable of use together or can have a materially different design, mode of operation, function, or effect. See MPEP § 806.05(j). In the instant case, the processes have distinct modes of operation, Group II relating to dispersing, microcapsulating without drying and Group III relates to coating step with a different weight percent of microcapsule content.

5. Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

6. A telephone call was made to Garret V. Davis on 6/14/06 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Art Unit: 1762

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

7. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

8. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Brian K. Talbot whose telephone number is (571) 272-1428. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Friday 6AM-3PM.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Timothy H. Meeks can be reached on (571) 272-1423. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
